COMPLAINT having been made to this board that the bakers in Charles-Town have hitherto neglected to comply with the directions of the act of the general aſſembly of this province, for regulating the aſſize of bread. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that thoſe who (for the future) ſhall make their bread deficient in weight, or ſhall not ſufficiently bake and mark it, and in every particular comply with the directions of the ſaid act, will not only loſe their bread, but alſo be proſecuted with the utmoſt rigour for the penalties therein contained.

WHEREAS Miſs Tibby Mowyet and her adviſers, have been ſo impruvent to publiſh a declaration, which I ſigned out of reſpect to the fair ſex in general, and her in particular, with an intention (as was then repreſented to me) to clear up ſome indecent reports the very foolliſhly ſpread on herſelf and me to ſome few of her friends, and for the ſupport of her character in Jamaica: But as the publication of that paper is intended (as ſome of my friends take it) more to affront me than with a good deſign, I take this public method therefore to DECLARE, that I do not take it as ſuch (for how can a man be affronted in clearing the innocent), and I am only ſorry, neither her counſel nor I knew, at the time of forming it, it was to be publiſhed, or we might have added, to make her good character more ample, what ſhe and I only knows, but as that cannot be done now, I muſt only deſire thoſe who want a further vindication of her character, to apply to me, and they ſhall be fully ſatisfied (if they will take my word) of the virtuous deportment, chaſte behaviour, modeſt aſſurance, and meek temper, of the above amiable Miſs Tibby Mowyet, whoſe goodneſs in forgiving my raſhneſs I ſhall never forget

EXTRAORDINARY.

CHARLES-TOWN, October 1.

YEsterday 7 night arrived here Capt. Thomas, in 14 Days from New York, and 10 from Sandy Hook, whose Accounts leave but little Room for favourable Conjectures concerning the Safety of Oswego: They are, "That 2 Sailors who escaped from thence told the following Story, viz. That on the 9th or 10th of August, one of the Schooners came in, with Advice to the Garison, that a large Army was encamped on the Bank of the Lake about 4 miles to the Eastward: That 2 Sloops were thereupon immediately ordered out to annoy the Enemy, but, finding they had heavier Cannon than themselves, returned to Oswego: That the 3d Day after the Enemy's Army, consisting of 3000 French, and many Indians, approached Fort-Ontario on the East Side of the River, then commanded by Capt. Pagett, and attacked it with Musquetry: That Capt. Pagett returned their Fire, but perceiving they were going to play their Artillery upon the Fort, he spiked his Cannon, sunk his Powder in the Well, and retired to the old Fort on the West Side of the River: That the Enemy soon after play'd their Cannon upon the old Fort, where our whole Number was 15 or 1600 men, and the Engagement continued from Thursday to Saturday Noon, being the 14th Day of August; when Col. Mercer (who commanded there) being killed, the Garison beats Parley, and Lieutenant Middlemore went over over to the French, to treat about a Surrender, and returned with an Officer hood-wink'd: That just before the Parley, a considerable Party of the French had forded the River above, at the Riffs, and were preparing to attack the Lines about the old Fort, where Col. Schuyler was posted: That they were ignorant of the Terms, but understood they were honourible, and remembered that both English and French Colours were flying the best Part of the Afternoon." So far the Sailors Intelligence.—— "That when this News came to General Webb, at the Carrying Place, Trees were fallen to stop up Wood Creek; and that the Enemy began where we left off, and continued the Obstruction down to the Oneida Lake." Thus far add the New York Papers, with the following Observations: "Thus we have lost one of the most important Garisons upon this Continent—Oswego enabled us to command the Lakes.—It secured us a Share of the Fur Trade.—It cut off the Communication between Canada and Louisiana, and thus prevented our being restricted to scant Limits along the Sea Shore—It embarrassed the French in their Access to the Ohio.—It obstructed their Incursions into the Southern Colonies—It covered the Western Frontier of the Province of New York, and secured the Friendship, or rather Neutrality, of the Six Nations—General Shirley was always sensible of its vast Importance.—All wise and disinterested Men in these Colonies knew it; and many miserable Wretches on the Frontiers, will probably feel it before the next Campaign,—How it came to be lost is a Question, which no Man in this Colony will take upon him to determine.—New-Jersey has lost a Regiment—She has lost more—She has lost Col. Schuyler, a brave and loyal Subject, who despised his own Ease, and the Delights of an affluent Fortune, for the Service of his Country.—Who had greater Inducements to content himself at Home? None.—Who has followed his disinterested Example? But One. And yet few have been less noticed—— Capt. Thomas, and private Letters by him, say farther, "That the Sailors Account was in Part confirmed by an Express from Albany, from whence 6 young Men had been with 2 Mohawks, towards Oswego, to make Discoveries, and returned, reporting, they could approach no nearer to the Fort (for the Stench of the dead Bodies which they observed to lie in Heaps about it) than to see it was demolished and evacuated. That only 4 Men were killed, besides Col. Mercer, when Middlemore surrendered the Fort. That as soon as it was surrendered, every Man in it was put to the Sword. That the Snow built at Oswego, was seen sailing in the Lake with French Colours. And, that there was in the Fort when besieged, about 30 Pieces of Cannon, several of them Brass; and 18 Months Provisions for 3000 Men.

The same Day put in here, a Ship from the Bay of Honduras, of and for Jamaica, being very foul and in Want of Provisions, having been 18 Weeks at Sea.

On Friday last arrived here the Darling, Capt. Lyford from Jamaica, who informs us, that the French had 9 Men of War, chiefly Frigates, continually cruizing in the Windward Passage, so that no English Vessel durst attempt coming thro' there; and that Admiral Townshend had so few Ships at Jamaica, that he could not attempt to disturb them: That he was chased near Cape Florida, a whole Day, by a French Frigate of 36 Guns, but escaped by running into shallow Water upon the Bahama Bank: And, that he saw a Ship, a Brigantine, and a Sloop ashore upon Florida, but could not assist them.

On Thursday arrived Capt. Wishlade, from London, by whom we have the disagreeable Confirmation of the French being in full Possession of Minorca, General Blakeney having surrendered Fort St. Philip on the 29 of June; he and his Garison to march out with all the Honours of War, and be transported immediately, at the French King's Expence, to Gibraltar. And these farther Advices, that Admirals Hawke and Saunders, had arrived in the Mediterranean, and taken the Command of the Fleet there: And that they had sent home the —famous Byng, and Admiral Wosh: That they were both arrived at Portsmouth, in the Antelope: That Mr. West, as soon as he landed, set out in a Post Chaise for London, applauded instead of insulted by every body as he pass'd along: But, that a Troop of Horse came to conduct Mr. Byng, who had not gone far on his Journey, before they met an Express ordering them to re conduct him to Portsmouth, and put him on board Admiral Osborn's Ship, it being impracticable to carry him to London alive, as the Roads were lined by an incensed People, who would have no Bounds set to their Rage. And, that Col. Alex. Vanderdusen died on the 13th of July last.

By a Vessel from Providence, in 5 Days, we learn, that a Privateer Sloop of 14 Carriage Guns, commanded by Capt. Fleming, is sailed on a Cruize from thence.

We hear, from Georgia, that just before War was declared there, a French Vessel from Mississippi had put into Savannah, and sailed again; but that Capt. Braddock, was sent after her, and brought her back, when it was discovered she had had both French and English Papers, and that the latter were thrown out of her Cabbin Window in a Tea Kettle, by Mistake: That the English Captain in her, had behaved very insolently, and was imprisoned; and that they had Reason to suspect this Vessel came to take a Survey of the Coast of that Colony, and intended to have come here with her English Papers, on the same Account. We hear also, that they are very sickly in Georgia.

Last Sunday Morning died, in the 71st Year of his Age, the Rev. Mr. Alexander Garden, formerly Rector of this Parish, and on Wednesday Morning he was privately interred, agreeable to his own Request. See his Eulogium in this Gazette No. 1049.

CHARLES-

CHARLES-TOWN, October 2.

About the beginning of last Month 8 of the English Settlers upon Ogeechy in Georgia, having (as we are told) some of their Horses stolen out of their Plantations by a few straggling Creek Indians, armed themselves, and very imprudently pursued the Indians to recover their Beasts; but the Indians firing upon them, their Fire was returned, two killed, one wounded, and the rest went off with the Death Whoop: The Ogeechy men returned to their Habitations, and after packing up what they could deserted them, then prudently apprehending terrible Consequences from their Rashness. This Accident occasioned the sending of many Expresses to this Government, for near a Fortnight together, while the Out Inhabitants of Georgia quitted their Settlements for Places of more Security, and resorted to and about Augusta, and there fortified themselves. In the mean Time, Warrants were issued for apprehending the Ogeechy Men, 6 of them were taken up in Georgia, and one in this Province and sent thither; Governor Reynolds ordered a Troop of 70 Rangers to be raised, and our Governor sent a Reinforcement from the Independent Companies to Augusta, for the Security of that Place, in Case the Creeks could not be satisfied, and Matters should come to Extremeties. But last Week our Accounts have been quite favourable, the Creek Nation have sent Addresses to this Government and Georgia, "condemning the Behaviour of their young Men, expressing great Concern at such an Accident happening, (in the Manner it was related to them by one of their own People) and hoping it would produce no ill Consequences towards them from the English, with whom they desired to live in perfect Peace and Friendship: At the same expressing great Sorrow, that they could not come to Charles Town to shake Hands (i.e. renew their Treaties of Friendship) with His Excellency Governor Lyttelton, without exposing themselves to such dangerous Sickнesses as had heretofore attended them on that long Journey, and losing many of their Men on the Road; and therefore desiring He would meet them at Augusta in the Spring." So that now the Out Inhabitants of Georgia are returned to their Settlements, and every Thing there is quiet again: And Mr. Pepper, the Agent from this Government to the Creek Nation, having set out for their Country the 23d ult. 'tis hoped, the Talks he carries to, and will have with them, will not only remove all Jealousies, and settle all Disputes, but also produce something for the Interest of all North America.

We have also had some little Alarms from the Cherokee Country; but they chiefly arose from Mistaken apprehensions: And we can assure our Readers, that a great Number of the People of that Nation, are so forward upon their Journey hither, that they will be in Town within a few Days; and that, if the Little Carpenter should not arrive with them, he will soon follow, having staid behind only to conduct our People safe over the Hills, that are gone to build the Fort.

Last Night arrived the Northern Post, by whom we have no other Account of Oswego, than that it surrended to an interior Number; that Col. Schuyler had one of his Legs shot off, and died soon after—and the following other Advices, viz.

NEWBERN (in North-Carolina), Sept. 10.

SINCE our last arrived an Express from Virginia, with Dispatches forwarded by Governor Dinwiddie from Lord Loudoun, with an Account, That a considerable Body of French and Indians were landed at Oswego, and posted in such a Manner as to leave no Probability of that Place's escaping their Hands.

Boston, August 30. Saturday night last arrived here capt. Freeman from Halifax, who informs, That the day before he left that place, which was the 20th inst. Capt. Hale, who was sent to Louisbourgh by governor Lawrence as a flag of truce returned, and reported, that the French fleet (5 in number) were sailed for old France, and that some of commodore Holmes's squadron were in pursuit of them. We also hear, that Capt. Knox is arrived at Halifax, and brought in with him a second prize, a French dogger bound from Old France to Louisbourgh, laden with wine, brandy, oil, and dry goods: She is esteemed a valuable prize.

Thursday last an express arrived here from Albany, which brought an account, (and yesterday another, which confirmed it, from lord Loudoun), that after 10 days siege, the two forts at Oswego were surrendred up, as it is said, to about 7000 French and Indians, the 19th of this instant.

New York, Sept. 6. Since our last 4 of the Scotch transports arrived here from Glasgow; the snow Duke of Argyle, Capt King, being the 7th and last transport, with the High and troops, run ashore last wednesday evening near the Cove at Sandy Hook; and 'tis feared cannot be got off again; but the people are all come up to town.

Altho' 3 privateers have already sailed from this port, there are now in our harbour, 5 others, viz. 2 snows, 2 brigs, and 1 schooner, that are to sail in a week or two on the same account.

Extract of a Letter from Halifax, Aug. 23.

"By the Papers herewith sent, you'll see Capt. Knox is returned from a second cruize, and has brought in with him a French dogger, of about 200 tons, loaded with wine, brandy, oil, and dry goods, reckoned to be worth about £. 6000 sterling—The success Capt. Knox has already met with, has induced us to fit out 1 snow, 2 schooners, and 1 sloop, all on the privateering account, and will sail in a short time.

Saturday last, a fishing schooner arrived here, the Master whereof reports, and has offered to make affidavit of the same, That he saw commodore Holmes, with 7 ships, take 4 French men of war off Louisbourg. 'Tis supposed these are the 4 ships that commodore Holmes engaged last month, so briskly, as we have had advice of their sailing from Louisbourg; and as the wind has not been favourable, so as to permit Mr. Holmes's arrival here, the report gains ground."

Extract of a letter from Boston, dated last monday.

"Just now arrived capt. Trefrey from Halifax, who says, as he was coming out, he met two fishing shallops bound in, the masters whereof told him, that commodore Holmes had in tow, 4 of the 5 French men of war he engaged some time ago off Louisbourg."

Newbern, September 17. By Letters from Virginia, we have an Account, That General Winslow, with 7000 of the Provincial Forces, had forced his Way thro' Ticonderoga, with the Loss of 1600 Men, and that at least 3000 French were killed in the Action; the General was in Pursuit of the remaining Part of the French Army, and 'twas thought would be at Crown Point in a few Days.
